

Vedika Trivedi

A Textile design professional, studied from NIFT (B.des - 2017-21). Majoring in re-inventing home spaces and design strategy through textile prints and surface developments. A visual story teller who thrives on creative challenges and critical thinking. I hold a major interest in folk reclamation and narrating unheard stories through my work.

I strive to be a multi-disciplinary designer who could promote better lifestyle through human-centered design and collaborative design methods.
